

diately after Section 2 of said Article, relating to parties entitled to sue for wrongful death where such wrongful act has occurred in another jurisdiction.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 67 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1939 Edition), title "Negligence Causing Death", to be known as Section 2A, to follow immediately after Section 2 of said Article, and to read as follows:

2A. In all actions instituted in the courts of this State under Section 2 of this Article, the proper person to bring the action shall be determined by applying the following rules:

(a) Any person who is entitled to bring suit under the laws of the jurisdiction wherein the wrongful death occurred may bring suit in Maryland, upon proof of his qualifications and authority.

(b) If the laws of the State wherein the wrongful death occurred provide for suit to be brought in the name of the State, District or Territory, as the case may be, then suit may be brought in Maryland in the name of this State on behalf of the beneficiaries protected under the foreign statute.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not in any way be construed to apply to actions in which service of process can be obtained in the jurisdiction where the cause of action arose or where the plaintiff resides.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1947.

Approved April 25, 1947.

CHAPTER 741.

(House Bill 407)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 62 and 63D of Article 39 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1943 Supplement), title "Fish and Fisheries", subtitle "Licenses" revising the qualifications for commercial fishing licenses, the manner of issuing such licenses and the circumstances under which such licenses may be transferred to new licensees.
